“ My sincerest condolences are extended to the family and friends of Luella Hunter. Death is a sad occasion, and no one really looks forward to it. The Bible encourages us to "have hope toward God...that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and unrighteous" (Acts 24:15). May you all continue to find comfort and hope in the Bible.##imported-begin##Brittany Adams##imported-end##

“ It was a real shock to learn about Luella's passing. I heard about her passing from her brother-inlaw, Mr. Fahie. Luella and I met when we were in the sixth grade, and were friends ever since. It was Luella, the late Yvonne Dunlop, and myself Pat. Her death hit me hard because I did not get a chance to say good bye. No doubt Luella will be missed. To her husband and sons, you have my deepest sympathy, and please know that Luella is in a better place, no more suffering, and Luella was a beautiful and wonderful person that I love very much. May she rest in peace.##imported-begin##Patricia F. Rawlins##imported-end##
