

Lukita Demarne James

December 27, 1973 - September 8, 2022

Lukita Demarne James, born on December 27, 1973 in Henrico County was the oldest of three children born to Sherleen Bright. She is a graduate of Varina High School. Kita worked for 711 Corp for many years, before becoming a highly skilled home health professional at family owned and operated Bright Adult Care.

Kita loved her family and enjoyed spending time with them. She enjoyed regular visits from her siblings, cousins, nieces and nephews. Influenced by her grandmother Gertrude James, Kita always maintained a close relationship with God.

Kita was preceded in death and actively grieving her son, JayShon Brooks who transitioned from life in 2020. She leaves behind her life partner Lafayette Jenkins, two sons, TyeQuan Brooks and Marquis James; a loving mother, Sherleen Bright; step father, Warren Bright; siblings John and Laverne White; devoted nieces, nephews, and a host of family and friends.
