

Lula Dell Lane

June 30, 1925 - January 23, 2011

After a lengthy illness, LULA DELL LANE, daughter of the late Issac and Thelma Sessoms, was born on June 30, 1925 in Nash County, North Carolina and deceased on January 23, 2011.

She graduated from Bricks High School on May 14, 1942 in Nash County, North Carolina. From the union of Bernard Lane, Sr. (deceased), five children were born, Gwendolyn, Bernard Jr., Freda, Arnold and Belinda. She was called Ma By her children, and Nana by her grandchildren. She loved her family dearly. Her places of resident over the years were New Port News, VA, Turners Station, MD, and on Mosher Street and Yataruba Drive, Balto. MD.

In 1976 Lula began a study of the Bible with Sister Daphne Segal (now Hilton). She appreciated the things learned from that study and was baptized in 1977. Lula loved to attend Christian meetings at the Kingdom Hall and at assemblies and convention and sharing in the preaching and teaching of the Good News of God's Kingdom with family and friends.

Lila retired from an accounting department for the City of Baltimore in 1985 and used the extra time to travel by ship, plane or rail. Lula was a beautiful woman and many people over the years told her she looked like Lena Horne, and she just smiled. Sorry Lula, that you never got a chance to meet Lena Horne.

She loved to cook her crab casserole, corn pudding, fried apples, and homemade biscuits. These were a few of the goodies from her kitchen. Lula will be missed by all especially Sister Hazel Lee, her roommate.

She will be missed by her children: Gwendolyn Deanes, Bernard Lane, Jr., Baltimore, MD, Freda B. Odum, Irvine, CA and Belinda Sea, Woodridge, IL; two sisters, Susie Jones, Port Washington, MD and Cynthia Whittaker, Rialto, CA; two brothers, Camillus Sessoms, Montclair, VA and Oliver Sessoms, Battleboro, NC; two sister-in-law, Mattie Sessoms Doris Sessoms; three sons-in-law, Van D.. Deanes, Darryle Odum and Tommy Sea; and a host of grand and great grandchildren, along with many nieces and nephews.
