“ Please accept my regrets. The Bible makes it clear that death was NOT a part of God's original purpose for the earth. It also promises at Isaiah 25:8: "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces..." We look forward to the time when that promise will come true and we can be reunited with our dead loved ones.##imported-begin##Lockley##imported-end##

“ To the family I offer my deepest sympathy. At times like this it may seem difficult to find a source of comfort. However there is a comforter who tells us at at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you..." If you "Draw close to God...he will draw close to you", (James 4:8) and will provide you comfort now and in the days to come.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to hear of your loss. Death is such an enemy of life. We were created to live forever, but due to the sin of our first parents, we all fall short of the mark. At Romans 6:23 it states: "For the wages sin pays is death, but the gift God gives is everlasting life by Christ Jesus our Lord". Yes, Jesus Christ paid the price for sin and death by giving us the gift of everlasting life. Soon, on the last day, you will see your loved ones who are asleep in death, again. I hope this brings you comfort.##imported-begin##Von Holley##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
