

Lula Odessa Gainey

November 28, 1947 - November 4, 2006

LULA O. GAINEY, affectionately known as "Tiny," was born to the late Claudia Mumford and Clem L. Evans, on November 28, 1947. She departed her earthly home on November 4, 2006, after a brief illness. Lula received her education in the Chesterfield County School System. At an early age she attended and was baptized at St. James A.M.E. Church of Chesterfield, South Carolina. Lula later met and married John W. Gainey, and to this union three children were born, Antonio Dwayne and Johnathan Antwane Gainey, also one daughter, Donna D. Gainey, who preceded her in the entrance to the Holy Kingdom. She was a loving, kind and friendly spirit. She loved to help others when needed. She had many friends and was known for her infamous sense of humor. She spent many hours laughing and talking to family and friends. She loved holidays for this was a chance for her to have her family together. At these gatherings she was always the last to say goodnight. Tiny worked in many sewing factories over the years; the last being Max Rubins. Tiny worked at Right Turn until a brief illness brought her out. She always talked about her work at Right Turn and how rewarding and challenging her work was. She leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Antonio and Johnathan Gainey; grandchildren; three sisters, Lounetta Watts, Lillie M. Armstrong and Annie Evans-Robinson; two aunts, Marie Merriman and Ruth L. Chapman; daughter-in-law, Debbie Gainey of Bennettsville, South Carolina; and a host of other relatives and friends. Special recognition to Corneille Brown.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the death of your loved one. Death is something God never wanted for the human family. His purpose was for people to live forever in good health and happiness. When we look at the world today we see that this is certainly not the case. The world is full of violence, sickness, and tragedy after tragedy. One day soon Jehovah God will bring an end to all tragedy, and bring about a peaceful new world where violence, sickness, and death will be a thing of the past. 1st Cor.15:26 promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Then "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. John 5 :28,29. So God has promised that the dead will live again. They will be ressurected back to life, and we can be with them again forever. I hope you recieve the comfort you need to sustain you, and help you to go on.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
