

Lurline Wizzart

October 11, 1927 - January 15, 2012

God in His infinite wisdom reached down and picked another one of His flowers for His "Garden of Peace". On Sunday, January 15, 2012, LURLINE SHAW WIZZART was summoned and answered the eternal call to rest.

Lurline Shaw Wizzart, born to the late Theodosia Reed and Charlie Shaw was born on October 11, 1927 in Hanover, Jamaica, West Indies. She received her education at Mount Ward and Mount Peto schools. Lurline was an ambitious young and an entrepreneur at heart. She owned and operated a grocery store with her husband and then in November, 1970 the pair migrated to the United States. She worked briefly as a store clerk in the A&P Food Market and then she opened and ran her own daycare for several years. Lurline had five children. She was a member of the Northwest Church of God under the leadership of Pastor Prem Sankar for a few years and then she became a member of Unity Fellowship Apostolic Church under the direction of Pastor Carl Adams, Sr. Lurline was a true woman of God who loved the Lord. She was a giver, always smiling and making people laugh with her jokes. She was kind, generous, positive and always friendly. Lurline was hard-working, loving and dependable, and if someone needed her she was ready and willing to lend a hand.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband of forty-seven years, Joseph Wizzart; eldest son, Alvin Allen; and grandson, Nekoro Brown.

Lurline Shaw Wizzart, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister and dear friend leaves to cherish her legacy and memory: four children, Jeneloy Wizzart, Elon Wizzart, Ophelia Brown and Pamela Bennett; daughter-in-law, Carol Wizzart; sons-in-law, Delroy Brown, Alric Wilson and Herbert Bennett; twelve grandchildren, Karlton Wizzart, Nadine Wizzart, Keshia Wizzart, Alisia Wilson, Shemika Brown-Tomlinson, Vallen Wizzart, Shaka Brown, Jermaine Wizzart, Duran, Ashley Wizzart, Elon Wizzart, Jr. and Linval Bennett; seven great-grandchildren, Kaila Coleman, Caylee and Caleb Tomlinson; two sisters-in-law, Martha and Mary Wizzart; one brother-in-law, Emmanuel Wizzart; a dear nephew and niece, Junior and Cheryl Wizzart; and a host of other nieces, nephews, family, extended family and friends. She will be sadly missed by her family and all those who knew her.

“ I would like to extend my condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one. In your grief, may these scriptures help to comfort you.(Psalms 34:18; John 5:28, 29 and 2 Cor. 1: 3, 4)

M. Johnson - January 18, 2012 at 11:03 AM

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. When a loved one dies the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such a time we can find comfort in Jesus promise made to all who have loss loved one in death at John 5:28,29 which reads: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."

Delores Allen - January 18, 2012 at 08:07 AM

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

We will miss her sense of humor and her caring spirit to all of us who were part of her life. She always wanted to get a smile from you either in person or over the phone. We will always remember that about her as we experienced on our last visit with her recently in the hospital.
