“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I an so sorry that you had to experience the pain of losing your loved one. Although he will live on in your memory God promises that one day you will see him again in the ressurection. That was one of the most important reasons Jesus gave his precious life in our behalf so that according to John 10:10 that we might have life and have it in abundance." Also please read Isaiah25:8, Revelation21:3-5, Daniel12:2, and Acts 24:15 whenever the grief gets to hard to bear, because these scriptures are very comforting, and gives us a sure hope for the future. May Jehovah God comfort you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences goes out to your family at this time. May you find comfort in God's love and the hope of the resurrection at Isaiah 26:19, which says, "your dead ones will live ....they will rise up." Almighty God also promises to remove our enemy - death at 1Cor. 15:26. May these words bring you some consolation.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ I wish to offer my deepest sympathy to the family of Mr. Locke. Death was not apart of God's original plan. However he has given us a solution to the problem. One day soon by means of his Kingdom death will be removed. And then the fulfillment of the words at Isaiah 25:8,9 will be a reality.##imported-begin##K. D. Smith##imported-end##

“ So sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 tells us that death is "the last enemy". That same verse tells us that death will be "destroyed". There is the hope of our dead loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. {Revelation 21:3-3} Acts 24:15 assures "that there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength as you think deeply on these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##
