

Luther F. Moore

October 26, 1948 - August 17, 2002

Luther Franklin Moore, son of the late Franklin Gadson and Louise Moore (Garrett), was born on October 26, 1948 in Baltimore, Maryland. He answered the Lord calling on August 17, 2002. Luther, whom everyone called "Popeye," received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and received his G.E.D. later on. He also worked and provided for his late wife, Dorrice Moore and his two stepchildren here in Baltimore. Luther leaves to cherish his memory: three sister, twin sister, Martha Lutricia Moore, Winnie Mae Brown and Robin Donita Garrett; one brother, Kenneth Ray Jackson and sister-in-law, Linda Jackson; one uncle, Wilbert Moore. He also leaves to mourn eleven nieces, four nephews, four great-nieces, five great-nephews one great great niece and one great great nephew; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
