

Luther J. Cade

February 26, 1928 - May 19, 2002

Luther Lee Cade was born on February 26, 1930 to Cornelia and the late Levi Cade in Lumberton, North Carolina. Buddy, as he was affectionately called, accepted the Lord and Savior as he studied the Bible and listened to the lessons of Rev. Price on television. He enjoyed debating whatever information he received from the Bible or other publications on religions. Buddy was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He joined the Army as a teenager and spent the majority of his time in Germany. When Buddy left the Army, he accepted employment at Bethlehem Steel Shipyard. Buddy's employer permitted him to study management and other business courses at Loyola College in Baltimore. Because Buddy demonstrated good leadership skills and dedication, he advanced to a supervisory position at Bethlehem Steel at an early age. Buddy later married his sweetheart, Doris Dolores; and from this union, five children were born. At age fifty-one, Buddy retired from Bethlehem Steel Shipyard. Buddy enjoyed exercising, photography, and playing pinochle. He became a devoted grandfather, living his childhood dreams through his grandchildren. For the past two years, Buddy gallantly and courageously fought an illness he couldn't conquer. On Sunday, May 19, 2002, God in His infinite wisdom called Buddy Home. He leaves to rejoice in his Homecoming: a devoted wife; four daughters, Deborah, Valerie, Cindy and Nikki; two sons, Eric and Lee; six grandchildren, Keith, Meghan, Donyae, Ja-Waan, Jordan and Don; his mother, Cornelia Cade; two sisters, Rosa C. James and Patricia Dickens-Smith; a brother, William Vernon Starvis; a sister-in-law, Essie Cade; a brother-in-law, Ronald Smith; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ In as much as life blesses us all with fond remeberances of those we love,they will never really die. They will live in our hearts forever. We can trust in our Lord and Savior Jesus the Christ to welcome Luther into his arms and care for him for eternity.May you find comfort in His promises. My prayers are with you during this most difficult of times.##imported-begin##Frank George##imported-end##

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
