

Luvenia B. Alston

December 25, 1950 - February 6, 2003

Luvenia B. Alston, daughter of Samuel R. Stewart Sr. and the late Elsie M. Stewart was born on December 25, 1950 in North Carolina. On February 6, 2003 she was suddenly called to rest. Luvenia attended Baltimore City schools and was a graduate of Northwestern High School. Upon completion of her education, Luvenia became an employee of C&P Telephone Company. She was a faithful and dedicated employee for thirty years. She had recently retired in June. On May 30, 1969, Luvenia was united to Raymond P. Alston Sr., out of this union one child was born, Raymond P. Alston Jr. Luvenia was a devoted mother and grandmother. She was a very private person but would always lend an ear or a helping hand to others. She was a devoted friend and co-worker. She was loved by many. She leaves to mourn: her son, Raymond Alston Jr.; granddaughter, Khadijah Green; father, Samuel Stewart Sr.; two sisters, Yvette Stewart and Kimberly Carroll; brother, Samuel R. Stewart; sister-in-law, Mary Stewart; two nieces, three nephews, two great-nephews; special friends, Raymond and Caroline Alston; devoted cousin, Janie Fontaine; one aunt, one uncle, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To The Family of Luvenia B. Alston: We are sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Our family finds comfort in Jesus' words at John 5:28,29 "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life". We hope your family is comforted by these words.##imported-begin##sharon hill##imported-end##
