

Lydia Johanna Andrews

November 17, 1923 - May 7, 2015

Lydia Johanna Andrews, daughter of the late Clarence and Agnes Thomas, was born on November 17, 1923 in Grenada, of the West Indies. She departed this life on May 7, 2015.

As a child, she migrated from Grenada to Trinidad and Tobago where she received her education at Point Fortin High School. After her husband's death, she later migrated to the United States in the fall of 1971 to be closer to her children, and began her career in geriatrics until her retirement.

She was married to John Randolph Andrews for 31 years until his death, and out of this union four children were born; Winston, Merle, Maudeane, and Barry.

Lydia was a strong willed woman who knew what she wanted, chose her path in life, and did not waver. She was long time member of Saint Ambrose Catholic Church to which she was extremely faithful and devoted. Lydia loved to worship at home and say her rosary daily. She was loved and admired by many friends and family alike. She took great pride in her appearance and her surroundings. In her spare time, Lydia enjoyed crocheting, sewing, baking, and reading. Taking long scenic drives during the change of the seasons was one of her favorite things to do.

She leaves to mourn: her son, Winston Devon Andrews; her daughter, Merle Jeanette Ward and her daughter, Maudeane Marina Solomon; nine grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren, eleven great-great-grandchildren, and a host of other loving family and friends.

“ To the Andrews family:
*I'm sorry to hear of the loss of your love one. May you find comfort from God's promise to "wipe away tears from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Rev. 21:3-5
Please accept my deepest condolences.*
