“ My Grandma was the best that humanity had to offer. She was my heart, my angel, the singular expression of God's love for me. I think of her everyday. I know that even in the abysmal reaches of my grief, her having found peace is a guide toward accepting such an incredible loss.

Katrina Hall (nee Farmer) - July 17, 2014 at 07:27 PM

“ My grandma was the sweetest person. I remember when she came to my law graduation and they announced our class as we walked out and all I could see was her smile. I'd call her and i'd say hey grandma. She's say hey...who is this? I'm like guess. She'd say a name and i'm like no grandma! She'd say is this my baby? I'd laugh and say yes. I'm really going to miss hearing her laugh. Love you grandma!!!!

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

I am so sorry that god has taken u aways from me. You came into my life 30 years ago and brought so much joy and happiness into my world you were there for me at the most happiest time of my life. You were by my side holding my hand when johnnie lee and I got married. You were there with that beautiful smile on your face and over the years whenever I call you, you always listen and tell me just pray baby just pray. So now I pray for you that you are at peace and I will always love you-Evon Farmer
