“ Lynette was one of my daughter Calandra's best friends. I remember 4 of these young ladies formed an unbreakable bond of friendship dating back to the early 1980's. They all remained close friends even til Lynette's passing. She will forever be remembered by not only my daughter, but by me. Rest in God's living arms sweetie. Until we all see you again on the other side. Family members and daughter Janae and her two children, we love you and pray God gives you strength through this tough time. Praise God for allowing us to have Lynette and Grace our lives with her beauty.
