

Lynette Massie Clay

October 27, 1963 - June 24, 2015

Lynette Massie Clay was born on October 27, 1963 to Joseph S. Massie, Jr. and the late Lillian Chiles Massie in Richmond, Virginia. She attended Richmond Public Schools and graduated from John Marshall High School, where she was a member of the Cavalier Marching Band. After high school, she attended Norfolk State University majoring in early childhood education. Lynette had a heart for the less fortunate and was loved by many. She was baptized in 1972 at Cedar Street

Baptist Church where she recently renewed her membership.

In 1985, Lynette married Robert Clay, Sr. and to that union two children were born, Robert Clay Jr. and Shannon Clay. Lynette served as a Juvenile Correctional Officer at Beaumont Correctional Center for ten years. She loved having the opportunity to help children. She worked in corrections and received an early retirement.

After Beaumont, Lynette began a career at the Medical College of Virginia in Food Services, until she left on medical leave. She loved working at MCV because of the spiritual passion she had in her heart for helping people.

Lynette is survived by her daughter, Shannon Clay; son, Robert Clay; father, Joseph S. Massie Jr.; step-mother, Monta K. Massie; brothers, Joseph S. Massie III, Esq., Michael J. Massie, Esq., and Kennard L. Massie; sisters, Erikka M. Massie, Esq., Erienne M. Massie, and Jessica E. Massie; nieces, Hannah Massie, Taylor Massie, Nina Massie, Kennedy Massie, and Caroline Massie; nephews, Kennard Massie II, Gregory Chiles Jr., Michael Massie II, Quinton Massie, Donovan Swift, Samuel Massie and Dawson Swift; aunts, Vivian Christian, Doris Green, Carolyn Coleman, Rosetta Chiles, Joann Chiles, Sarah Chiles, Barbara Wiley, and Dorothy Scroggins; uncles, Vernon Scroggins, Julius Chiles and Robert Chiles, a host of devoted cousins and friends.

“ What a beautiful and kind hearted young lady. I am Offering my sincere condolences to the family. I had the pleasure of meeting Lynette at Norfolk State where we both majored in the same field but I also met her through some wonderful friends as well. She was a wonderful person. My heart goes out to here children. May god bless and keep you all safe in his arms.

“ Offering sincere condolences to the family. May you all draw closer to our Heavenly Father by means of prayer and immerse yourself in his word where you will receive comfort and hope. (Rev.21:4,5) assures us, that we await many blessings. There will be no more pain, sorrow, or tears, No one will grow old and die; no one will be sick or infirm. These are the future blessings that our heavenly father Jehovah God assures.

I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the Massie/Chiles family. "Winnie" was always a very loving and supportive cousin-in-law and friend to me. May God ease your pain and fill your hearts during this time of loss.
