

Lynn Dewayne Wooten

August 20, 1957 - March 29, 2017

Our beloved Lynn Dewayne Wooten, 59, of Richmond, Virginia departed this life on Wednesday, March 29, 2017 and took God's outstretched hand and walked through the pearly gates of heaven. He was born to the late Nettie Pittman and John Wesley Wooten, Sr. on August 20, 1957.

Lynn graduated from Bowie State University with a degree in Journalism in 1983 where he was coined as the "Human Dictionary". He later enlisted into the United States Army in 1984 where he served five and a half years proudly and received an honorable discharge.

In January of 1985, he was united in holy matrimony to Jan B. Jefferson, to whom he remained devoted until the day he passed.

Lynn had love for everyone who graced his presence. He had a tremendously big heart and to know him was truly to love him. Lynn was a wonderful husband, father, and brother that loved was a great provider to his family. He always wanted to make everyone happy and comfortable. God also blessed Lynn with a serious skill of gardening, a hidden voice of humor and very athletic in his own way.

The gifts of love he left behind will always be treasured. Lynn Wooten leaves behind his lovely wife, Jan B. Wooten; daughter, Sade Wooten; son, Khiry Wooten; grandson, Tyshawn Paige; nephew, Antoine Williams; brother, John Wesley Wooten II; aunt, Marion Goode; uncle, James T. Goode; two brothers-in-law, Aubert Jefferson and Tremaine Shearin; devoted friend and barber, Willie Winston and many devout relatives.

“Beyond the gate our loved one finds happiness and rest. And there is confidence in the thought, that a loving God knows best.”
