

Lynnette D. Pack

June 15, 1971 - December 30, 2004

As she looked to the hills from whence cometh her help, Lynnette Denise Pack quietly slipped away. The day was Thursday, December 30, 2004, the time was 6:03 p.m. at the Stella Maris Hospice Center of Mercy Hospital. Affectionately called "Birdie," she was born June 15, 1971 to Barbara White-Colbert and William Pack. She was the mother of LaTonya Williams, Cortez Pack and Sylvester Johnson III of Baltimore, Md. Lynnette was educated in the public schools of Anne Arundel County. As a child she attended Hall United Methodist Church and was a member of the Mildtones. A very loving and good-hearted person, she enjoyed swimming, bowling and softball games. She had a bright and beautiful smile, a great sense of humor. Sometimes she could be quite snappy when provoked or questioned, for she only told you what she wanted you to know. Whenever you saw her and before saying good-bye, she would reach out, kiss you and softly say "I Love You". She leaves to mourn: her mother, Barbara Colbert; father, William Pack; stepmother, Christine Pack; her children, LaTonya, Cortez and Sylvester; two sisters, Melissa Hunt and Tyniece Pack-Fraleley of Glen Burnie; four brothers, Thomas Pack of Annapolis, Raymond Pack and Tavon Hines of Millersville, and Darlwyn Pack of Severn; also a sister-in-law, Kimberly Pack; brother-in-law, Robert Fraley; godmother, Delores Cager; close friend, Dawnet Taylor, and Charles Hunt who she regarded as "Daddy;" a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and other relatives. She was preceded in death by one brother, Dajuan Terrell Hunt.

“ To the family and friends, my deepest condolences. May you cherish her memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.###imported-begin###Sean###imported-end###

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my belated condolences for the loss of your loved one. Notice the Bible's loving promise at Daniel 12:2- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." Jesus promises that they will wake up to a paradise earth. (Luke 23:4, Matthew 5:5 and Psalm 37:29) May these scriptures give you comfort and strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy is with your family and friends on the loss you share, we have all lost someone we love and it's especially hard when they are young, May you find comfort in whats said in God's Word at Isaiah 25:8 & Revelation 21:4. May you also find comfort in knowing that many people extend their hearts and hands to help you, let them help you get through this tough time.##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##

“ Dear Family I wanted to take this time to express my condolences on the loss of your loved one. I wanted to let you know that the Bible offers hope and comfort at times like this. The scriptures tells us that God is a God of Comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 & Isaiah 66:13). They also tell us that he sees our plight is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves, Psalm 34:18. There is also hope of seeing our dead loved ones again in a different world free from all the stresses of this world. A world where there are no crimes, sickness, death, poverty, etc. these promises can be found at scriptures such as Psalm, 37:10,11; Revelation 21:3,4; John 5:28,29; Isaiah 26:19; Hosea 13:14. There are plenty of other scriptures but time will not permit me to give them all to you. There is a brochure that can be obtained from Jehovah’s Witnesses called “when someone you love dies” and also a brochure called “what happened to us when we die”. The next time Jehovah’s Witnesses knock on your door please ask them for a copy of this brochure and they will be more than happy to help you find other comforting scriptures. Please take the time to read the scriptures mentioned and draw comfort from them whenever you feel the need.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
