“ Our heart is heavy right now. Lynwood was always smiling and happy go lucky. When Curtis Baccus worked with him at Van Go he became a friend and always wanted me to send him potato salad when I made it. We truly will miss him and praying for his family at this time. We will be there on Friday and Saturday in memory of this great and caring man. Family stay strong and be encouraged. He will always be remembered for the man he was.

“ To the Family Of Lin. Though times are at their deepest darkness for each of you just know that God has opened his eternal arms and wrapped them around the spirit and soul of Linwood. He has taken his place on the choir stand of heaven and when times are bleak just listen for his heavenly voice as he sings his praise. Peace Be Still my Eternal friend. Jeff Walker.

“ To Annette Braxton and the Braxton family, there is no words at this time to ease the pain and hurt that you are feeling. But that will past and remember that you will see your husband again ,and you will be rejoicing hold on and God will heal the pain. I say to the family be strong and hold to the good time you share and God is your strength and shield.

To Annette Braxton and family, we are so very sorry for your loss and have been keeping you all in our prayers. I keep remembering you and your loving husband sitting behind us in church and I could always feel that loving spirit coming from you and Lynwood. Just know that God has you and keep holding on to His unchanging hands. Love you Joseph and Beverly Jefferson

Lynwood has been my rock, my best friend and he will be well miss. There are no words to describe how much I love him as the person he truly was. I sent prayers to his wife and all of his family, with my deepest sympathy. May God carry you when you feel that you are not able to go on and may he BLESS EACH ONE OF YOU.
