

Ma-chi A. Pollard

May 4, 2008 - January 16, 2009

God sent us an Angel on May 4, 2008 and was suddenly called home on January 16, 2009. Ma'Chi was a handsome ANGLE, with such a bright personality. He had the most beautiful eyes; they could brighten any dark moment. That glowed even more each time he looked into his mother's eyes. He was preceded in death by his great-grandmother; Mary McCray and grandmother Chanel Williams. He leaves to cherish his most unforgettable moments to his mother; Denier MCCray, father; Malachi Pollard, Sr. god-mothers Felicia and Rawlicia Pryor, godfather Charles Booker, siblings; Jariah Jackson. Makiyah and Malachi Pollard, one step-sister; Maniya Bugg, grandmother; Joyce Rainey, grandfather; Michael McCray, great-grandmother Martha Ann Pollard, 6 aunts; Tarsha, Danielle, Tia, Kyah, Jeresha, and Keisha, 6 uncles; Michael, Marcus, Michael, Jr., Robert, Jeremy and Javon, several great aunts and uncles, and a host of cousins.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss or your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 lovingly reveals that our "enemy death" is to be destroyed. Also, Acts 24:15 declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from these wonderful promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere and heartfelt condolences for the loss of your precious little baby. The loss of a loved one is truly devastating, especially when we lose someone so very young. My heart goes out to you all in your sorrow. When a child dies many people say that God needed another angel. In actuality, he never desired any of us to die, and one day he promises that all sickness and death will be done away with forever. Through a resurrection, the dead will come back to life. When Jesus was on the earth he resurrected many people; including a 12-year old little girl. Can you imagine the joy her parents had at seeing her alive again? Mark 5:38-43. One day we will experience that same joy when our loved ones are brought back to life. May you too find much comfort and a hope for the future in God's wonderful promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would love to send my heart felt condolences in your little Ma-chi circle of life being broken so short. Our heavenly father from the beginning with the frist man and woman purpose for mankind to life forever, however thing change and here we are today with so much sickness and dying, Romans. 5:12. The good news is that in the near future dying WILL be a thing of the past, Isa.25:8. I am so longing for that time and I know you all are too. May the promise found at Ps.145:16 be helping to read.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##
