

Ma'Ryan R. Wilson

April 18, 1992 - December 26, 2015

Ma'Ryan Raheem Wilson, cherished son of Patrice and Amefika "Rico" Wilson, was born on April 18, 1992 in Baltimore, MD. He was the first grandson born to both families and they were very blessed to have him. On December 26, 2015, he was ushered into heaven by his two grandmothers, Pearl Wilson and Cynthia Smith.

Boka, as he was affectionately called, was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was employed at Spring Grove Hospital and most recently, at Amazon.

He was the apple of his parents eye who loved and cared for him dearly. As the oldest son, Boka shared a special relationship with his brothers, Qu'ran, Ahmad "Mar Mar" and Amir "Milk Man". He was an excellent role model and he cared for them as if they were his own.

As a child, Boka developed a passion for riding bikes, playing video games and various sports, especially basketball. He became an exceptional dirt bike rider and could be seen keeping up with the "big boys" throughout the city.

Boka was known for his style and always stayed fresh. He had numerous friends but he shared a special bond with his cousins and the 800 Crew. His bright smile and his love of being the jokester of the bunch will always be remembered.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his parents, Rico and Tricy; his brothers, Qu'ran, Ahmad and Amir; his grandfathers, Randolph and Warren (Denise); his aunts, Sherl, Randria, Nyeima, Tiffany, Kiera, Toraine, Tiara, and Ayanna; his special aunts, Valerie and Sharon, godmother, Donna and a host of great aunts, great uncles, god brothers and sisters, cousins and friends.
