“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy that we never get used to. But the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 tells us that our enemy death will one day be destroyed no longer to take our loved ones away. There is hope of our dead loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(Revelation 21:4) To add to that Acts 24:15 says- "And I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much solace and strength as you reflect on these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My sincere sympathy to your family. May God's promise at 1 Cor. 15:26, to remove our enemy death bring you comfort. Also, Isa. 26:19 teaches that the dead will live again, they will rise up. I'm sure you would agree the hope of the resurrection is very encouraging especially, when we experience the loss of a loved one. May you find comfort in God's promises.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ To the Darby's ! I send my condolences to you all.Living to the age that Ms.Mabel was truly a great, 83years, that is something the bible say is speacial mightest at Ps.90:10, some lived to be 70 and others 80 years but in these last days some of us die. Living forever without illness, old age , pain, and others problems would be the greatest thing ever.We long to be happy, our creator made mankind that way. The bible holds so many promises of better days ahead for all of us , Ps.37:10-11,37:29,145:16 where the bible say that everything we desire we will have , peace and prefect health. May all the cherish memory of Ms.Mabel stay close to you all hearts. I send my condolences to the family, friends. Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##lillian crosby##imported-end##
