

Mabel E. Brown

November 29, 1911 - July 11, 2002

“Some glad morning, when this life is over, I’ll fly away.” On Thursday, July 11, 2002, Mabel E. Brown, at the age of 90, answered the Master’s call peacefully in Providence, Rhode Island. Mabel was born November 29, 1911 to the late William “Bill” and Susie Johnson in Ruffin, N.C. She was the youngest of eleven children, all which preceded her in death. At an early age she received her childhood education and joined Mount Herman Baptist Church in Ruffin, North Carolina. She later was united in holy matrimony to the late Mr. Warren Brown. In 1945, Mabel and Warren moved to Baltimore, Maryland. Once in Baltimore, she united with Bethany Baptist Church where she served faithfully as a deaconess and a missionary. She devoted the rest of her time to being a loving foster parent. After suffering with a stroke in 1995, she relocated to Rhode Island to be cared for by her niece Ernestine Miller. “Aunt Mabel” as she is referred to by so many, was a loving person to her family, her church, her neighbors and all that knew her. She leaves to cherish her blessed memories: three sons, Michael Winfield, Jeremiah and Tyrone Murray; seven grandchildren, Latresa, Tykia, Toyya, Tyrone Jr., Corey, Gunnun and Tonya; a life-long friend, Thomasina Ware; a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Mabel E. Brown

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ You and your family are in my prayers. Josie R. Faucette”

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.”

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM