“ The tears that dampen our eyes in time of mourning are tears of homesickness, tears of longing for our loved ones. But it is we who are away from home, not they! Death has been for them a doorway to an eternal home. They are still with us, lovingly and tenderly waiting for the day when we, too, will enter the doorway of our eternal home. It is such a mistake to see death as separation and nothing more. For us who believe, death is a preparation for eternal union with those we love, in peace and in joy.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

“ Dear Christine, and Family. How saddened I was to hear of your sweet little Mom's passing. My sister, Joyce, and I would each watch from our back windows as Christine would take her Mom for daily walks, or she and Joe would take her for rides. Our dear Mom went on to Glory back in 1989 and it gave us a sweet sense of comfort to see the love, and care Christine and Joe showered Mrs. Frazier with. Love between a mother and daughter is a true Blessing from God, and though we still miss ours so very much, it was wonderful to see it shared by you. We remember the care you went out of your way to express when our father passed back in September. Having known both your Mom and Dad as kind neighbors all these many years, we now extend our heartfelt prayers of condolence, comfort, and peace to you. We know what a painful time this has to be, given your love and closeness. But we also know a Sweet God who will send His Holy Comforter to you if you but ask in Jesus' name! Your Mom has taken her much deserved rest from the trials of this world (Rev 21:4), and I am sure she left with the wonderful knowledge that she was, indeed, loved very much here. May God continue to bless and keep you, and ease you through this time. With Love, Friendship, and Prayers,
Betty L. Oglesby###imported-begin###Betty L. Oglesby###imported-end##
