

Mabel K. Hobson

May 27, 1929 - January 20, 2015

Our beloved Mother, Sister, Aunt and Grandmother Mabel Kennard Hobson, who preferred the spelling of her name to be "Mable," returned to God on January 20, 2015 . She is at rest after a long struggle with several debilitating conditions.

Mable was 85 years old at the time of her passing. She was the youngest of 21 children born from Robert and Mary Lee who preceded her in death.

Mable was a native of Baltimore, Maryland where she worked as a Chef and Caterer for more than 40 years in addition to being the head dietitian at a Jewish Convalescent Home.

Mabel was always an artistic, creative person, who enjoyed drawing and oil painting. She was also a self-taught musician, playing several instruments. In her youth, she and her sister Carrie sang professionally throughout the Mid-Atlantic area, as a Christian duo.

Most who knew her will remember her love of all things D.I.Y.! Mable and her late husband Percy Hobson ran a basement remodeling company together for years saying, "You can make money for someone else, you can make money for yourself!"

She leaves behind to mourn: one surviving sibling, Benson Lee Sr. and his wife, Phyllis. She also leaves behind her beloved and devoted son, Rudolph Taliaferro Jr. and daughter-in-law, Yolanda; as well as recently widowed daughter, Zemira Najeeullah. Mabel leaves two grandchildren, Robert and Raven Taliaferro, who were the joy of her life.

Mabel will be missed by a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews, devoted friends, Mrs. Shirley Williams and Mrs. Johnnie Wright as well as her many other friends.

Mabel always disliked the cutting of flowers, saying it was selfish of us to cut their lives short for our pleasure, when we could enjoy them just as well, if left to grow.
