

Mabel Mae Davis

October 12, 1927 - March 26, 2005

Mabel Mae Davis, daughter of the late John Wesley and Addie Davis, was born on October 12, 1927 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the seventh of seven children. She departed this life on March 26, 2005. Mabel received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She graduated from Baltimore City Hospital in 1951 and has nursed for over thirty-four years in various hospitals and nursing homes and has also done private duty nursing. At the age of fifty-three, Mabel attended Baltimore Community College for two years. In 1989, she retired from nursing and for ten years worked at St. Ambrose Outreach Center as a volunteer, where she faithfully served many hungry and homeless people in the Park Heights Community. At the age of seventy, Mabel took a refresher course in nursing at Catonsville Community College and returned to nursing. A woman much loved, she was admired by all. She truly loved people and could not do enough for all. Mabel was a member of St. Ambrose Catholic Church and a member of St. Vincent de Paul of Baltimore. Mabel leaves to mourn her loss: Marion Graham (her pretended sister, who was a God send); dear friends, Towanda Stovall, Pat Villacrusis, Vivian Jackson, Marguerite Johnson, Sister Charmaine Krohe, SSND, and Sister Jeanne Barasha, SSND; a host of cousins and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends , I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 5:28,29 where Jesus says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ May God bless you and comfort you as you mourn the death of your loved one. I would like to share a scripture with you that brought much comfort to my family in times past, and that is Rev.21,3,4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. One day soon that scripture will be a reality. Take care.##imported-begin##R

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
