

Mabel Brockington Plummer

October 2, 1938 - August 31, 2022

Mabel Brockington Plummer, 83, was born October 2, 1938 to Katie Vaughn and Henry B. Tune in Richmond, Virginia. They, along with her loving husband, Dr. Herbert R. Plummer Sr. were waiting for her at Heaven's gate on August 31, 2022.

Mabel grew up in Richmond and graduated from Maggie L. Walker High School. She accepted Christ as her Savior at an early age and began her journey of faith with 5th St. Baptist Church.

On July 19, 1958, she committed her love to Herbert R. Plummer, Sr. Their union was blessed with four children. Mabel was employed with the State of Virginia as a Payroll Supervisor. But Swansboro Baptist Church was the recipient of her deeper passions as its First Lady for an astounding 47 years.

Also preceding Mabel in death were three brothers, Ernest Brockington, Nathan Brockington and Willie Vaughan; and very close cousin, Doris Patrone.

Mabel leaves to cherish her memories: sons, Herbert Ralph Plummer Jr., Randall D. Plummer and Anthony D. Plummer (Sabrina); one daughter, Monica A. Newby (Vincent); grandchildren, Sandy Brunson (Phillip), Travis Plummer, Brandon Argro, Antonio Plummer, Felicia Banks (Daquon), Alexis

Brown (Antonini), Anitrice Epps (Donte), Jumaun Plummer, Shawn Newby, Dominique Pugh, Jeremica Harris, and Keishaundra Jeffries; a long list of great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren and sister-in-law, Maggie L. Plummer.

“ To The Family of Mrs. Mabel Plummer:

On behalf of me and my family I just want to extend our condolences to you all. Mrs. Mabel was like another Mother to me and my Siblings. She will Truly be missed. You all just keep holding onto God's unchanging hands. Just know that God will guide you all paths if you all keep trusting in him. I'm here for you all if you need someone to be there for comfort. We love you all.
