

Mabel Taylor

September 28, 1940 - February 18, 2015

MABEL TAYLOR ("COOL GRANNY"), daughter of the late Ann Walker, was born on September 28, 1940 in Clarksville, VA, Mecklenburg, County. She went home to be with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ on February 18, 2015. She was surrounded by family and friends. She was educated in Mecklenburg County Public Schools. She later moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she provided in-house daycare for more than thirty years. She was known as "Cool Granny", a name that was given to her by her granddaughter, Brenda Bodley when she was a young child. Mabel was truly the wind beneath the wings of her children. She was a true matriarch of the family. Her selfless love and tender care was the essence of who she was during life. She always placed the care of others before herself and this was known by anyone and everyone whom she came in contact with. She had mercy and compassion for those down on their luck and was always willing to share what she had throughout her neighborhood. Her daycare children were treated like her very own. Throughout her house she has pictures of them incorporated with her own biological children. Most of these children have grown into late teens and young adults, and continued to drop by just to say "Hi Cool Granny, how you been doing?" Mabel was married to the late George Taylor who preceded her in death. From this union, she leaves cherished memory to: George Taylor, Jr. (Chandra), Leroy Taylor, David Taylor, Winston Taylor (Veretta), Martha Suggs (Tyrone) and Mary Taylor (Nick Ahmed) (three children preceded her in death, Marcella Jefferson, Dorothy Bodley (Roland) and Ernest Taylor); her one surviving sister, Annie Oliver (sister Eleva Peck preceded her in death, two brothers also preceded her in death, Garnett Walker and Walter Walker and two brothers-in-law preceded her in death, Charlie Oliver and John Peck); twenty-one grandchildren, thirty-three great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild; a devoted granddaughter, Markeita Sledge; and devoted family member, Gaylee Taylor. A very devoted neighbor and friend for more than forty years preceded her in death, Ms. Gloria Jean Daniels (Ms. Jean). She also leaves a host of nieces, great-nieces, nephews, great-nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Coolgranny, My children and I will truly miss you. There aren't aren't enough words to say. We love you and thank you for being our grandmother and mother in law. Over the past 30 years you have been more like my mother and I have valued your love and friendship. We will miss our family outings and be patient until it is our turn to see you again. We didn't want you to go but understand you wanted to be somewhere better and free from pain and anguish. Please enjoy your new place and the family that made the journey home so much easier for you. Rest in Peace!

“ I am extremely sorry for your loss. I can not imagine the pain you have had to endure. May the God of comfort be with you now and in times to come. God's Word the bible promises the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. That promise is at John 28,29 and also at Revelations 21: 3,4
