

Mabel Wiley

April 14, 1919 - December 28, 2013

MABEL HOUSTON-WILEY, daughter of the late Robert and Addie Houston Sr., was born on April 14, 1919 in Littleton, NC. She departed this life on December 28, 2013.

Mabel received her education in the public schools of North Carolina.

She worked private duty for more than thirty years for a local Baltimore family. Mabel was a member of the Zion Baptist Church for over thirty years. She loved sewing, traveling to North Carolina, shopping, being with her family, wearing beautiful clothes, doing her hair and just being “The Diva” she was. To know her was to love her.

Mabel married Willie Wiley on July 3, 1967, the love of her life whom she referred to as “Darling” or “Mr. Wiley”. Mabel Houston-Wiley was the oldest relative in the family.

She leaves to mourn: her devoted husband, Willie Wiley; sister, Mrs. Carrie Mae Spruill of Littleton, NC; sister-in-law, Mary J. Houston of Baltimore; a very special niece whom she called her daughter, Addie Smith; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

“ I am so sorry to read about the death of your love one.. My family would like to express our condolences to your family. I would like to share this scripture with you at John 5:28, 29 "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming In which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." I hope this scripture will bring your family comfort that soon you will see your Love one again.

“ *To the Family of Mabel Wiley:
I wanted to write to let you know how sorry I was to read of the death of your loved one. Death is such a terrible thing, and it hurts us to badly. Jehovah knows that it is so very painful for us and He has set out comfort in his word the bible. It says at John 5:28 and 29 there will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous. How comforting that scripture is. So we know that we will see our loved ones again. The bible says at 1 John 4:8 that God is a God of love. Then it says at Revelation 21:4 that He will 'wipe away every tear, death, sickness and pain'. So we only have good things to look forward to. Well I do hope these scriptures have been an encouragement to you. If you have any comments or questions please e-mail me.*

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ I wish to send my deepest condolences to the family of Mabel Wiley. Also, I want to share with you, that we all long to live in a world where pain, suffering, and death will be things of the past. This is not a figment of the imagination; a righteous new world will be a reality, because God has promised it. The fulfillment of his purpose for mankind is described at Revelation 21:3-5. May you draw much comfort in the Creator's wonderful promises, and know that soon we will welcome our loved ones back, wrapping our arms around them once again. Again, please accept my sincere sympathy.

“ To the Family of Mabel Wiley: My deepest sympathy on the loss of your dear Mabel. Please take solace in the wonderful hope found in Gods' Word The Bible. We read in part, at John 5:28-29, "..... Do not marvel at this, the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will come out.." Very shortly Our Heavenly Father Jehovah (Psalms 83:18) will end death forever (Revelation 21:3-4) Until that very near day, may you be comforted by pleasant memories of her life. Mrs. D.
