

Mable Whittle Bracey

December 13, 1942 - September 22, 2012

Obituary

Mable Whittle Bracey was born in Mecklenburg County (South Hill, Virginia) to the late John Wesley and Illinoy Bell Whittle on December 13, 1942. She entered into eternal life Saturday, September 22, 2012.

Mable was baptized at an early age at North View Baptist Church of South Hill, Virginia. Mable was a gourmet cook and shared many of her favorite recipes with family and friends. She also loved traveling: Europe, Hawaii, the Caribbean Islands and Cancun were some of her favorite places. Her traveling group will cherish the many adventures they had together.

Mable was a Program Trainer for the City of Richmond Department of Social Services. She retired from the city after 34 years of service, May 1, 2007.

Our beloved Mable will be missed by all. We know that she lives in the hearts and minds of those who knew and loved her. Because of the wonderful love she shared, she will never be forgotten and will always be in our hearts. We were so fortunate to have had her in our lives and we feel empty without her, but we know she would want us to “stay strong”.

Mable showed extraordinary strength and courage throughout her life, serving as a role model for her family, friends, and co-workers.

She leaves to cherish her memory one daughter, Aderian Fenise Bracey of Richmond, VA; four sisters, Honorie Whittle of South Hill, VA, Alice Ryan (Willie), Deloris Nixon and Freda Bishop (Eric) of Richmond, VA; a niece who was like a sister, Bernice Skipwith of Newark, NJ; one aunt, Iola Bell Pulliam of Silver Spring, MD; one uncle, Chester Bell (Claudia) of Bloomfield, NJ; her godson, Michael Wood of MD; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and a devoted friend, Gloria Scott of Richmond, VA.

God looked around his garden and saw an empty space.

He then looked down upon this earth and saw Mable's smiling face.

God's garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best.

It broke our heart to see Mable go, but she did not go alone.

For part of us went with her the day God called her home.

“ "If a man dies, can he live again?" asked the man Job long ago. (Job 14:14) Perhaps you to have wondered about this. How would you feel if you knew that a reunion with your loved ones was possible? The Bible makes this promise "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." (Isaiah 26"19) Almighty God assures us that if we take in accurate knowledge of him and his son, Christ Jesus and live by bible standards, we have the hope of seeing our loved ones again in the near future where we will live on a paradise earth forever. (Psalm 37:29) I hope this has brought you a measure of comfort and I pray that you seek to know what the bible really teaches about this wonderful time.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

"He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away."

We will always cherish the wisdom and guidance that Mable shared. She will be missed. Find comfort in knowing that her pain and troubles have ceased and we shall meet with her again someday.
