

Mable Louise Brooks

October 23, 1918 - July 5, 2012

The sun shined brightly on July 5, 2012 when God in His Infinite Wisdom, softly whispered the name of Mable Louise Brooks and sent His angels to bring home one of His most faithful servants.

Mable Louise Pinn was born in the majestic rolling hills of Northumberland County in Virginia, the daughter and youngest sibling of the late Joseph and Florence Pinn on October 23, 1918.

Mable resided and received her formal education at Rosenwald High School in Northumberland County, Virginia before migrating to Baltimore, Maryland in search of the city life and gainful employment. She was employed at several places before landing at the Seton Convent. While working there, she met Henry J. Brooks and they were married on March 25, 1958, who preceded her in death in 2002.

Mable was a member of The New Psalmist Baptist Church. She belong to the Ever-Ready Circle and also sang in the chorus. She would persuade her nephew, Archie Pinn to get the Metroplitanaires to perform at the church.

Mable enjoyed an upbeat life with the Roamers Social Club. She also had her own club, the Sedate Six. Between these two groups, hey had many parties, card games, crabfeast, cabarets and traveled extensively. "Life Was Good".

Mable was a warm, very passionate and caring, as well as a giving person. She would give you her opinion, whether you wanted it or not, but all done from love.

Near the end, Mable suffer early stages of Alzheimer and Dementia. She could not remember much of the good days. Her strength was evident throughout her illness and her final journey.

Left to cherish her loving memory are: one son, John H. Brooks, Jr.; one daughter-in-law, Ifreda M. Brooks; two great-granddaughters, Amara S. Brooks and Taylor Virgil; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
