

Mable Elizabeth Chandler

July 28, 1929 - February 17, 2012

MABLE ELIZABETH CHANDLER was born on July 28, 1929 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the second child born to the late Horace W. and Mary E. Hall. On Friday, February 17, 2012, after a brief illness, Mable passed away at the Seasons Hospice at Northwest Hospital Center in Randallstown, Maryland.

“Sis” as she was fondly called, received her formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System. In her early adulthood she gave birth to two baby daughters. Barbara, born on March 28, 1947 and Brenda born on May 11, 1948. Mable later went to work at the Fish Linen Supply Company as a laundress, until she retired.

Cooking and baking for her family was what she loved doing most. Sis hosted family dinners that were so delicious and enjoyable to everyone. If you ever had a taste for lip smacking home made rolls, Mable was the lady to see. Also, her crab cakes and macaroni and cheese were wonderful and she never hesitated to share her recipes with loved ones.

Atlantic City was one of her favorite places to visit. She also went on trips with other residents of her senior citizen building to Charlestown, West Virginia and when she was lucky, she shared her winnings with the family.

Mable was such a loving and devoted daughter. She dutifully cared for her ailing mother for years until Mama had to be placed in a nursing facility. And doing that saddened her to no end.

Mable leaves to mourn: a brother, Horace W. Hall, Jr.; two daughters, Barbara Young and Brenda Sydnor and their spouses, George Young and Jerome Sydnor; five grandchildren, Victoria Johnson Hall, Jimmie Johnson, Vanessa Manning and her spouse Leeroy Manning, Ivy Chester, III and Valerie Chester; three great-grandchildren, Danielle Johnson, Ryan M. Chester-Hammond and Ronald G. Slowe, III; (great-grandson, Haywood T. White, V preceded her in death); also, one great-great-grandchild, Mason Eric Harris; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ Losing a loved one is so hard to come to terms with. It really turns our world upside down. Death was never God's purpose for us, because he is the living God and he hates death. He views death as our enemy and he promises to swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Isaiah 25:8. It is certainly a wonderful hope that we can trust in, because God never fails to carry out his word. Isaiah 55:10. May the hope of someday seeing Mable alive again help you to cope with her loss.
