

Mable D. Jackson

January 20, 1925 - November 19, 2006

Mable Dorothy Jackson, one daughter of the eight children born to the late Elmer and Florence Burnett, was born on January 20, 1925 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on November 19, 2006, after a lengthy illness. She received her education in Baltimore public schools. As a young woman, she married the former Ralph Smith. That union only lasted four years. On September 30, 1950 she married again before moving to New York to Henry Lee Jackson (who preceded her in death). She began a career as a domestic and raised generations of children, none of her own. Mable made numerous friends and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her, especially a devoted friend, Rueben Creamer of Buffalo, New York. She leaves to mourn: sister, Susie Williams of Baltimore, Maryland; brother, Walter Burnett of Virginia; sister-in-law, Hortense; her child-like nieces, Victoria, Patricia, Bernice, Phyllis and Yacine; nephews, Robert, Purnell and Willie Jr. and a host of other nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ May I take this opportunity to send my condolences to u all. Ms. Mable was in her 80's when she die. The bible shows that some persons would live to 70 years young , and others 80 because of speical mightiness. I am looking forward to the time when no one will ever die again and I know you all are too. May all your cherished memories of Ms. Mable stay close to your hearts. Sincerely, Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
