

Mable Draughn

May 18, 1928 - April 1, 2010

MABLE C. DRAUGHN, daughter of the late William C. Coles and Frances Coles, was born on May 18, 1928 in Roanoke, Virginia. She departed this life on April 1, 2010 at Loch Raven Genesis Health Care, after a brief illness. They moved to Baltimore, Maryland when Mable was nine years old. She went to public schools in Baltimore. She married the late Eddie F. Draughn in 1970. She joined New Carmel Star Baptist Church and served faithfully as an usher for many years. She worked as a home health aide for elderly people. Mable loved laughter and being with her family and friends. She always made those she met feel comfortable. Mable was preceded in death by her father William Coles, her mother Frances Coles, brother Clarence Coles, stepfather Raymond Hale and an uncle Howard Edwards. She leaves to celebrate her life and rejoice in her memory: her sister, Mae Francis Scott-Bland; brother-in-law, Fred Bland; sister-in-law, Jean Coles; niece, Crystal Coles; great-nephew, Majid; two great-nieces, Alijah and Denise Coles; stepbrother, Charles Hale of Delaware; three stepsisters, Norma M. Powell (David), Carolyn H. Ball (Wendall) and Jean H. Stockton all of Roanoke, Va.; devoted friend, Pauline Lewis; and four first cousins, Rose, Delphia Mae, Diann and Howard Edwards Jr. all of Baltimore; and a host of other friends.

“ Our Hearts go out to the Draughn family. It is never easy to say good bye to some one who has touched many hearts. In the short time I knew Mable and found out that she was excellent cook and right then, there blossomed a friendship. Again you all are in my prayers and thoughts, Amen LUV, The Powell-Williams Family, Teddy, Tina, Halee, Bahsco, and Noni.##imported-begin##Tian L.Powell##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).###imported-begin###C. Murphy###imported-end##
