

Mable E. Palmer

February 17, 1922 - February 9, 2005

Mabel Ellen Frazier Palmer daughter of the late Annie and John Frazier, was born on February 17, 1922, in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed her earthly home on February 9, 2005, after lengthy illness. Mabel was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She was employed at Montebello State Hospital for 25 years until her retirement. Mabel was raised in the Methodist faith, but she became a friend of the Catholic Church at St. Peter Claver, where her first children were baptized and educated. Mabel worked on the altar guild and in the rectory at St. Peter Claver. She became a member of St. Ann's Catholic Church in 1958. Mabel was baptized and confirmed into the Catholic faith by her friend Fr. DeLuca of St. Francis of Assisi. She remained a member of St. Ann's until her death. Mabel married the late Richard Palmer. Mabel loved home cooking especially crab cakes. She resided at Keswick Medical Center for 2 1/2 years and she loved her arts and crafts class, the Young at Heart Club, bingo and Bible classes. She enjoyed going on day shopping trips and out to lunch and dinner at Mamie's. Mabel was an avid reader and later enjoyed books on tape. She took great solace in daily readings of the Bible and listening to hymns and gospel. Mabel was a faith filled woman. Mabel leaves to cherish her memory: six children, Pauline Williams, Carolyn Smith, Elaine Edmonds, Beverly Palmer, Eric Palmer, and Vivian Palmer; two sons-in-law, Roland Edmonds and Fred Smith; one daughter-in-law, Maggie Palmer; seventeen grandchildren, Wanda, Charles, Senetta, Antoinette, Steve, Roger, Deneen, Dante, Shamayne, Cherie,

“ Penny and Elaine, We were so sorry to hear about the death of your mother. If only there were something that friends could say or do, some way they might express their thoughts and help to comfort you, and yet, perhaps, just knowing that there are those who care, will help at least in some small way to ease the loss you bear.##imported-begin##Brenda Royster and the Thornton and Lewis Family##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God, Jehovah says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mable E.Palmer, my deepest condolences on the lost of your loved one. The bible is full of words of comfort. At John 5:28-29, it tells us that those who have fallen asleep in death and who are in God's memory will rise again. Also at Isaiah 25:8, there we are comforted by the fact that God will bring a permanent end to death. May these scriptures comfort you and your family in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Albert Washington##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
