

Mable E. Ray

November 14, 1927 - July 31, 2004

On Saturday July 31st as the sun set, Mable Elizabeth Ray quietly went to her heavenly mansion. She was born November 14, 1927 to the late Charles and Josephine Williams. Mable, a native Baltimorean, was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. The baby of the family, she was a happy child, always singing and enjoying life. She met and married the late Melvin L. Ray, Sr. Together God blessed them with two daughters and a son. She and her husband loved to entertain family and friends at their beloved Brentwood Avenue home. Mable leaves to cherish her memory: devoted daughters, Rebecca White and Barbara Moore, and son, Rev. Melvin L. Ray Jr.; sister, Helen Ray and brother Joseph Williams; two sons-in-law, Albert White and Andrew Moore, and one daughter-in-law, Sharon Ray; eight grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, and one great-great grandchild, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends, including a very special friend and caregiver, Mrs. Carrie Scott.

“ Mrs.Rebecca, I was so sorry to hear about your mom. I can't say that I know what you are going through because I still have my mom, so I can only imagine. Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers at this difficult time. May you find peace in knowing that absence from the body means present with the Lord. May God continue to bless and keep you.##imported-begin##Ursula Young##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
