

Mable Mason

June 7, 1937 - December 13, 2013

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away.” — Revelations 21:4

MABEL MASON, daughter of the late Harry and Maggie Queen, was born on June 7, 1937 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a lengthy illness she departed this life on December 13, 2013. God whispered in her ear, “Come On Home, Mabel.”

Mabel received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools. Later in life she became a Certified Nursing Assistant and continued to work in private duty caring for patients. Mabel worked as a nursing assistant all of her adult life and always enjoyed taking care of her patients and wearing her white uniform.

She married the late Rufus William Mason. She was baptized in 2002 at St. Paul’s Baptist Church; she loved listening to church music on Sunday.

Mabel (affectionately known as Sissy to family and close friends) could be found after a hard week’s work sitting in the kitchen listening to oldies but goodies, her favorite song was “On My Own.”

She also enjoyed watching the Young and the Restless and having her daily morning conversation with Qiana and the kids on the phone.

She leaves to mourn: her sister, Dorothy Queen; brother, Andrew Queen; two sisters-in-law, Margaret and Shirley Queen; devoted daughter, Debra Mason; two sons, Dennis Mason and Rufus Mason; two daughters-in-law, nine grandchildren and fourteen great- grandchildren; special friend, Mickey; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Little did I know that morning that God was going to call your name,
In life I loved you dearly; in death I do the same.
It broke my hearts to lose you; you did not go alone,
For part of me went with you, the day God called you home.
You left me peaceful memories; your love is still my guide,
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. When a loved one dies the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such a time we can find comfort in Jesus promise made to all who have loss loved one in death at John 5:28,29 which reads: Do not be amazed at this,the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”

Condolences to the Mason Family. May you all find comfort from our Heavenly Father. There is also comfort from the bible at Revelation 21:4. There you will find the Hope for a Resurrection. Also sickness and death will be gone. That will be wonderful.
