

Mable Regina Poole

May 15, 1937 - November 10, 2005

A Loving Life of caring came to close suddenly on Thursday, November 10, 2005 at her residence when god called her home to a Land that is free from Sickness, Sorrow, and pain. Mable Regina Poole, daughter of the late Floyd Brown and the late Annie Howard, was born on May 31, 1937 in Baltimore, Maryland. Mable accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age and was baptized at Zion Baptist Church. She later joined Greater Mount Zion Baptist Church, where the Reverend James E. Butler was the founder and Pastor. She was currently a member of the New Fellowship Christian Community Church under the leadership of Reverend Dr. Kevin A. Rogers. Mable completed her education at Dunbar High School. She was employed by the Maryland Hospital Laundry at John Hopkins, where she retired after 30 years of dedicated service. Mable was a devoted mother to her children and family. She was affectionately known as Butter Cup, because she was as sweet as can be. She would give anyone her last if they needed it. If you needed a place to stay, her door was open, if you were hungry, she fed you. Mable was known for phrases like, "I need this, I need this, I need this like I need a hole in my head." "See I been doing this since day one." The most popular was "Hi and Bye." But she would still let you in. Her hobbies included reading, music, and dancing to the sounds of Ray Charles. Mable loved everyone, and she had a special love for feeding the birds. Mable married the late Shelton Poole and later united with the late Raymond Cummings. She leaves to cherish her fond memories: one son, Thomas

Cummings-El Sr.; three daughters, Valerie Poole, Renee Witherspoon, and Charlene Cummings; one aunt, Delcenia McKinnon (Uncle Roscoe McKinnon); two sisters, Catherine Jones and Phyllis Banks of Buffalo, NY; two sons-in-law, Ronald Witherspoon and Eugene Snead; one daughter-in-law, Natalie Cummings, three grandsons, Quron, Thomas Jr., Tamil; three granddaughters, Seantaye, Brianna, and Nataliya; one great granddaughter Khalin and host of relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I send my condolences to family and friends mourning the loss of Mrs. Poole. There is true comfort, however, we can take from the Bible. John 5:28,29 lets us know that our dead loved ones will come back to life when it says, "and those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". May you be comforted by this scripture and by Jehovah God.###imported-begin###Kendra A###imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family, friends & colleagues of Ms. Poole. I would like to offer some words of comfort at this time. Isaiah 25:8 states, "He will swallow up death forever." These words have God's assurance that the time will come when death will no longer plague mankind. A solid promise from our Heavenly Father.###imported-begin###Debbie Spann###imported-end##
