

Mable Marie Smith-Wiggins

July 15, 1940 - July 6, 2025

Celebrating
The Life & Legacy

Mable Marie Smith- Wiggins was born on July 15, 1940, in Farmville, Virginia. On Sunday, July 6, 2025, at the age of 84, Mable heard and accepted the call from her heavenly father to peacefully transition home to begin her journey to eternal rest.

At an early age, Mable embraced Jesus as her Lord and Savior at Morgan Baptist Church in Farmville, Virginia. She later joined Cedar Street Baptist Church in Richmond, Virginia.

Mable attended Richmond Public School where she received her formal education. She worked hard to provide for her family, maintaining two jobs for many years. Mable was a dedicated worker for Ethyl Incorporation and the Richmond Public and later at MLK where she retired.

Mable Marie Smith- Wiggins was preceded in death by her mother, Kaite C. Taylor, spouses Melvin Smith and Alfred Wiggins and her three sons, Melvin, Anthony and Shawn.

She leaves to cherish precious memories one sister, Louise B. Prince; five daughters, Diane Mosby (William); Tina Brooks (John); Charlene Smith; Annette Smith and Sharon Richardson (Jessie); four sons, Jerome Tucker (Alice) Michael Smith, Keith Smith (Dawana) and Daniel Smith; 21 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren; 6 great-great grandchildren; one sister-in-law, Ann Reid; one brother-in-law, Jimmy Smith; a host of other relatives and friends.
