

Mable Luetta Wynn

November 24, 1947 - May 27, 2021

Legacy of Life

Mable Luetta Wynn was born on November 24, 1947 in Henrico, Virginia to Roy Washington and Mary Foster Washington. She was preceded in death by her brothers, Roy Washington and Earl Foster and a sister, Betty Burton.

Mable received her formal education in the Henrico County Public Schools and graduated from Virginia Randolph High School. She furthered her education while still in high school by attending Virginia Randolph Vocational Center for Cosmetology. She received her cosmetology license in 1967.

Mable accepted Christ as her Savior at the age of 11 and was united with East Richmond Baptist Church. This church was next to her family home. Mable Washington was united in holy matrimony to Clyde Wynn on April 7, 1969 in Richmond, Virginia. This union was blessed with two daughters, Tavane and Chantay, along with one grandson Ian Clyde Wynn. She was employed by Phillip Morris where she retired early to come home and work with family.

Mable often loved to create works of art. Her skills for culinary treats were well known. Once retired, Mable spent her time cooking and caring for loved ones. She was very free-hearted when it came to assisting others. She often reached out to her siblings: Charles Washington, Phyllis Washington and James Washington.

Mable fulfilled her God given purpose in life spreading love, caring for and sharing with others. If you were happy, then she was happy.

She leaves to cherish her memory her dear husband of 53 years, Clyde Wynn; two caring daughters, Tavane Wynn and Chantay Wynn; adored grandson, Ian Wynn; two brothers, Charles Washington and James Washington; sister Phillis Washington; sister-in-law, Louise Washington. She was blessed with a host of nieces and nephews; several devoted nieces were with her throughout her illness: Rhonda Washington, Antionette Braxton, Delaysha Keshawn and Brianda Washington. There were also several close friends, including her telephone friend, Alisha Bey and beloved friend, Marylee Reid; a host of other relatives and friends.
