

Ms. Madeleine Madonna Charles

November 4, 1954 - December 18, 2025

Madeleine Madonna Charles was born on November 4, 1954, in Tamana, Trinidad and Tobago.

She transitioned peacefully, leaving behind a legacy of dedication, creativity, service, and love.

At an early age, Madeleine migrated to the United States with her beloved mother, Ms. Kimlyn Sinaswee. She was educated in Baltimore City, where she attended school and later pursued formal training in bookkeeping, which became her primary profession.

Madeleine worked diligently for many years, holding positions at High's, the Federal Reserve, and MB Klein Model Train Company. Throughout her career, bookkeeping remained her main area of expertise, reflecting her attention to detail, reliability, and strong work ethic.

A lifelong learner and creative spirit, Madeleine continued her education at various institutions while nurturing her passions. She found joy in baking, ceramics, and sewing, often sharing her talents with family and friends. She also loved traveling—especially trips to Trinidad for Carnival—along with cruises and organized bus trips, which brought her great happiness.

Madeleine was always supportive and generous with her time. She faithfully helped her mother, Ms. Kim, with Avon sales and assisted her on bus trips, demonstrating her constant devotion and care.

She was a devoted and loving mother to her cherished daughter, the late Tiffany Brown, whose life remained central to her heart.

Madeleine was an active and committed member of her church community of St. Ambrose. She served faithfully with the St. Vincent de Paul Society, participated on the Parish Council, assisted as a collection counter, and was a regular participant in the Rosary, living her faith through service and devotion.

She was the beloved daughter of Kimlyn Sinaswee; loving sister of Leroy Sinaswee; proud aunt of Sharon Sinaswee Powell; and cherished niece of Phyliss Bobb. She also leaves behind dear friends who held a special place in her life, including Denise Daniel, Roland James, Monica & Heathcliffe Lewis and Christine Barnes and many others whose lives were touched by her kindness and quiet strength.

Madeleine Madonna Charles will be remembered as a devoted mother, faithful servant, creative soul, and steady presence. Her memory will forever live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

“ To my dear St Ambrose Sister and friend, my heart is broken. Know that every moment we spent together whether in ministry, St Vincent de Paul, or running the streets were the best times ever. Truly never a dull moment because we were a team. All the laughter and singing while traveling the highways and byways in search of a bargain. I hope and pray that you know how much I treasured our friendship and your wisdom (yes, my Big Sister). Rest in Peace. Love you always, your little sister, Kina.
