

Madeline J. Easter

August 28, 1937 - February 21, 2023

Legacy of Life

To be absent from the body means you are in the presence of the Lord.

Madeline Johnson Easter was born on August 28, 1937, in New Kent County, Virginia to the late John H. Pryor, Sr., and Margaret Pryor. She was preceded in death by her brother, John Henry Pryor, Jr.

She was educated in the New Kent County, Virginia school system. Madeline accepted Christ as her Savior at an early age. She was united with Lebanon Baptist Church. She served as a faithful member.

Madeline was united in holy matrimony to Albert W. Easter on March 26, 1976, in Emporia, Virginia.

Madeline was affectionately known as “Matt” and called “Mama Matt” by those that loved her. She enjoyed being a homemaker and taking care of her family. She formerly worked for Janice and Jerry Gammon as a homemaker. In her leisure, she enjoyed cooking for her family and friends. Madeline especially liked to bake her famous sweet potato pies and make potato salad that was extremely delicious.

She leaves to cherish her memory: a loving husband, Albert Easter; a loving and devoted daughter, Lynette Johnson; brother, William F. Pryor (Dale); sister-in-law, Verley Davis; two brothers-in-law, Carl and William Easter; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends; a devoted friend, Janet Jones.
