

Madeline C. Hilliard

December 10, 1946 - May 9, 2012

“God never duplicates. He only creates.”

Madeline Clarice Hilliard was born on December 10, 1946 in Richmond, Virginia. She was the third of eight children born to her mother, Madeline White (who survives her) and her father Clarence Melvin Davis, II (who predeceased her).

Quietly and solemnly, on Wednesday, May 9, 2012 surrounded by family, God in His infinite wisdom, gently closed eyes of our beloved Clarice and she entered her eternal rest.

Clarice received her formal education in the Richmond, Virginia, School System. At the tender age of 14, she met and later married the love of her life, Clarence “June” Hilliard, and from that union came seven beautiful children.

Her life's calling emerged with the birth of her first child. Clarice's life calling was motherhood. You can sum up her lifetime achievement than in three words: Family, Love and Loyalty. She frequently visit the Landmark Christian Ministries Church on occasion. She built a foundation for her family as she worked for many years for the City of Richmond, Virginia.

Clarice, affectionately known as “Cly”, was loved by all who knew her and will be remembered for her tasty culinary expertise. She had “sharp”, distinguished taste for clothing and loved her hair “colored” and cut short. Her relationship with her loved ones and family friends were beyond close; it was interwoven.

Preceded her in death (in addition to her father) where her sister, Louise Brown and brother-in-law, Joseph Brown.

Clarice leaves to cherish her memory her loving and devoted husband, Clarence “ June” Hilliard; four daughters, Leona “ Lee” Mahone, Kim Anthony, Florence “Fee Fee” Hilliard and Tracey Davis; three sons Darryl and Larry Hilliard and Douglas Davis; 34 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren; mother, Madeline Hocker White; five sisters Dorothy Davis, Juanita Talley(Earle), Lillian Davis, Francine Claiborne and Tiny Smallwood (Herman); one brother, Clarence Davis,III(Victoria) and a host of other relatives and friends, including one special friend Thelma "T.T."Thorne.

“ Your mother is always with you...She's the whisper of the leaves as you walk down the street. She's the smell of bleach in your freshly laundered socks. She's the cool hand on your brow when yiu're not well. Your mother lives inside your laughter. She's crystallized in every tear drop... She's the place you came from, your first home...She's the map you follow with every step that you take. She's your first love and your first heart break....and nothing on earth can separate you. Not time, Not space...Not even death... will ever separate you from your mother....You carry her inside of you every day... May God Be With You All... Love Louise Owens (Dollar-Dollar)

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
