

Madeline Lee Walker

August 4, 1925 - February 7, 2006

MATTIE LEE WALKER, daughter of the late Nathaniel and Mary A. Bunch, was born on August 4, 1925 in Wake County, North Carolina. She departed this life on February 7, 2006, after a brief illness. Mattie Lee received her formal education in the public schools of Wake County. She was raised by her grandparents, and it was from them that she learned the fine art of cooking. Mattie, as she was so affectionately called by her family and friends, moved to Baltimore during the mid forties. Upon her arrival, she was hired by the Department of Defense and worked as an ammunitions clerk at Fort George G. Meade Army Base. After the war, she was employed by Bugle Laundry, for a short while. Mattie soon realized that cooking was her passion, and changed her career goals to that direction. She used the basics her grandparents had taught her and attended culinary school, where her skills were refined. After completion, she worked as a short-order cook for various restaurants in the Maryland area, among which were Howard Johnson's, Days Inn, and the Hecht Company, She received many accolades for her achievements. In 1977, Mattie became one of the original cooks for the famous Phillips Seafood Restaurant, from which she eventually retired. Mattie met Louis Edward Walker at the USO where she often volunteered her time as a hostess. They fell in love and in October 1954 made vows to each other in the sanctity of marriage. She enjoyed children, and not having any of her own, she opened the doors of her heart and home to help raise a number of foster children. She was a determined woman who touched the lives of many friends. She also enjoyed taking short trips to New Jersey and playing Bingo at the local Bingo Halls. Mattie will forever exist in the minds of her family and friends. She leaves to cherish her memory: a loving and dedicated companion, Elwood Adams; four sisters, Geraldine Moore, Dorothy Marie Powe, Patricia Ann Bunch, Deborah Denise Roberts; one brother, Willie Bunch; one sister-in-law, Antoinette Bunch; one brother-in-law, Clifton Roberts; nieces, nephews, and a host of other family and friends.

“ To the Walker Family, I am very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Losing a loved one is very painful. Revelation 21:4 tells us of a time we can look forward to "when death will be no more". What a great prospect. May you find comfort and hope from the scriptures during this time of bereavement.##imported-begin##M. Douglas##imported-end##

“ My deepest and heartfelt sympathy to the family of Mrs. Walker. Death is such a painful event that no family should have to experience. May it comfort you to know that one day you can see your loved one again in the resurrection which God has promised. Isaiah 25:8 says that he will swallow up death forever, and the Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. May you find a measure of comfort in his promises, as well as in your precious memories.##imported-begin##R Johnaonr##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy that we never get used to. But the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
