“ During our young adult years, Susie was like another member of my family. My sister and Susie attended college together and they spent a lot of time at each other's houses. It was great fun for me because I had the benefit of 2 big sisters.

As our lives changed over the years with responsibilities, we did not get the chance to spend a lot of time together, but the love remained.

We will miss Susie, but we will treasure the time we had with her.

Bobby and Joey: Cast your burden upon the Lord and He shall sustain you. He shall never suffer the righteous to be moved. Psalm 55:22.

“ Not only was she beautiful in appearance this was the most beautiful dear soul I have ever met. Every year I looked forward to receiving her unique Christmas Cards. I last spoke to Mrs. Loyal on her birthday February 22, 2011, and I'm so glad we had the chance to tell each other how much we loved and cared for each other. She told me she would always consider me her daughter, and since my own mother's passing she wanted me to consider her my "second mother". She asked about my sons and as she always did and told me she would pray for them as they figure out their paths in life. We ended our conversation with "I will always love you". I thank God for allowing us to borrow the love of this beautiful angel. I have no doubt whose hand she holds now.
I love you Mrs. Loyal.
