“ I realize this is almost a year late, but I just found out about her transition. My husband and I have been searching for Pat for over a year. So sorry to hear about her passing, but so thankful to have known such a sweet spirited, giving and loving person. Pray that our God welcomed her with open arms. Rest In Heaven Pat, we will never forget you. Her family has a sweet angel and God has a beautiful jewel in his crown. Our sincere condolence to her family and friends.

“ To the family of Pat Pittman. Sincere condolences for your loss. Pat was a very sweet, kind and mild mannered young lady. She lived next door to my family when I was a little girl living in Cherry Hill. I also remember visiting her at Ms. Bubby's pretty house on Cold Spring Lane. Please take comfort in knowing that she is now an angel in heaven because she was such a sweetie on earth.

Sincerely, Donna Hawkins
