

Madelyn Elaine McClendon

September 21, 1954 - May 15, 2015

Madelyn Elaine McClendon was born in Hartford, Connecticut on September 21, 1954 to the late William and Lenore McClendon. She departed this life into eternal rest on Friday, May 15, 2015.

Madelyn was educated in the public school system in Hartford, Connecticut, graduating from Bulkeley High School in 1972. She graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1976 with a degree in Business Administration/Marketing. She began employment with the Federal Government in 1999. Prior to her federal employment, she spent 15 years in the Consumer Packaging Goods Industry (General Foods, Quaker Oats, Alco); living in various states including Florida, New York, California, Massachusetts and Connecticut before making Virginia her home.

Madelyn began her spiritual journey with Christ at Guildfield Church in Powhatan, Virginia. She joined Saint Paul's Baptist Church in 1999. She was active on ISSA Usher Ministry for 5 years, and worked on the counting team before her "Walk" as a Deacon in 2006. Madelyn served faithfully on the Worship/Ministry and Benevolence Congregational Support Committees until she became ill. Madelyn's priority to promote goodwill showed in her ever-present desire to offer support and a helping hand to others.

Madelyn was an outstanding baker and took pride in whatever she prepared.

Her love for baking motivated her to start her own home confections baking business, which included her famous pound cakes.

Madelyn leaves to cherish three sisters: Anne Shaw of Connecticut, Emily Cooper (Cornelius, Jr.) and Sara Martin (Artos); and four brothers, Charles Robinson of Connecticut, David Mayfield (Shareese) of Florida, William McClendon of Connecticut, and Joseph McClendon (Mae) and beloved friend, Debbie Taylor, along with a host of other relatives and friends.

“ It saddened me when I heard that your love one had passed, however knowing that she loved the Lord, I rejoiced in the Lord and lifted you in prayer.

During your time of grief and bereavement, please know that others are praying for you. Praying that God will continue comforting and strengthening you; and that your love for each other and God will strengthen you now and the days ahead.

When peace like a river attends my way, when sorrow like sea billows roll, whatever my lot God has taught me to say, "Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord, Oh my soul. It is well, it is well, it is well with my soul".

May the peace of God that surpasses all understanding be with you now and forever.

Much love & many prayers.
