

Madessia Williford

November 4, 1955 - May 14, 2020

Madessia “Bunny” Williford was born on November 4, 1955 in Richmond, VA. She was the youngest of five children born to Dorothy P. Williford. Madessia joined Woodville Presbyterian Church at an early age. Bunny later became a faithful member of Bethlehem Baptist Church until her passing on May 14th, 2020. Bunny was preceded in death by her father and brother, William Lee, and William Lloyd Williford.

Bunny graduated from John Marshall High School, and went on to the Flair Beauty School where she became a Licensed Cosmetologist. Her specialty was a “Wet Jheri Curl”. After her career as a cosmetologist, Bunny was employed for the Postal Service, FFV, and Senior Connections. Bunny was a dedicated member of her church’s Gospel Choir, and loved to sing.

Bunny leaves behind to cherish her memories:

“ Madessia, I knew her as Bunny was one of my choir members at Bethlehem Baptist Church. She sung with the Voices of Bethlehem until her health began to fail. She was faithful and loyal to our Music Ministry. She will be missed by all, and we will never forget her. Rest in Peace.
