

Madie Freeman

July 3, 1915 - May 5, 2010

Celebrating the life of MADIE FREEMAN was born in Smithfield, Texas to the late Lavelder and Hattie Henderson on July 3, 1915. She departed this life at the age of ninety-four on May 1, 2010 after a long life of joy and happiness. She moved to Baltimore, Maryland to later marry the late Albert Freeman Sr. This union produced four children. She completed her education in the Smithfield, Texas School System. Madie was baptized at Center Union Baptist Church in Smithfield, Texas at an early age. She was a domestic worker for more than forty years with several families whom she loved and adored as members of her won family. She was a believer in hard work and being independent. Madie was loved and known for her sense of humor, youthful spirit, wisdom, strength and culinary skills. Everyone was always welcomed at her home. She loved to sit on her porch on warm days and entertain visitors or just watch the comings and goings of her neighbors. Madie will forever be remembered by: her loving sisters, Verdie B. Woods, Robbie L. Williams and eight brothers and sisters who preceded her in death; beloved children, Charles Benetta Laster, Albert Freeman Jr., Brenda Freeman-Johnson and the late Maurice Freeman; and her treasured grandchildren, Karen Jennings, James Price Jr., Shana Quick, Terrell Roberts, Alonzo Freeman and the late Craig Galloway and the late Maurice Freeman Jr.; dear sons-in-law, Ronald Laster and the late Leroy Johnson; daughter-in-law, Marie Freeman; grandson-in-law, Robert Jennings Jr.; granddaughter-in-law, Ariella Roberts; site-in-law, Carrie Gregory; devoted friend, Lillian Bryant; godson, Frank Gaither; surrogate daughters, Mildred Watkins, Ernestine Gaither and Darlene Felder; five great-grandchildren; and a host of loving nieces, nephews. Countless friends and neighbors will remember her spirit and strength.

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my condolences to the family and friends of Madie Freeman. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ To the family, please accept my condolences. May you be comforted by Jesus word at John 11:38-44. Jesus here demonstrated the resurrection hope with his friend Lazarus. This tells us how much our heavenly father Jehovah cares for us. May you find comfort in the scriptures during this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##
