

Madison C. Wilson

July 22, 1951 - August 14, 2012

MADISON C. WILSON, son of Coy Wilson and Ruby L. Wilson, was born in Kanawha, West Virginia. He departed this life on August 13, 2012 after a lengthy bout with cancer.

He received his education at George Washington High School in Charleston, West Virginia. At the age of twenty he became employed by C&P Telephone Company. Shortly afterward he moved to Maryland to attend the Maryland Institute School of Art. He also attended Morgan State College for a couple of semesters. He soon realized this was not going to pay the bills, so he became employed by the Division of Correction where he served for thirty-two years in which he retired. Prior to his retirement, he enrolled in Nursing School where earned a Licensed Practical Nursing Degree (LPN). He held several jobs in Nursing until he became a member of the Henry Jackson Foundation until his death.

He married Zzlah Brown on August of 2000. This reunion was only for a few years, but the live they shared lasted him a lifetime.

Madison was a strong and willful friend, mild mannered and noble. He was a good father, yet a better grandfather

Although he was a very private person, when he let you into his life you were a friend for life. Just ask James Dow, Joan Rodriguez and Mrs. Lewis

He leaves to mourn; his wife, Zzlah Brown; daughter, Shawnta R. Wilson; stepson, Zekar K. Hayes; stepdaughter, Zeteka V. Hayes; two granddaughters, Madsyn and Brook Acousta; two stepgranddaughters, Zydaysha and Zekhya; two stepgrandsons, Ziki and Za'ryah; four sisters-in-law, seven brothers-in-law; and a host of other relatives.

“ It only really occurred to me to search for the obituary today but in a way it does feel like a bit more closure. We were very young when you died and didn't handle seeing you sick well. For that I want to apologize. I think of you often and I have your name engraved in my class ring. I'm working hard to get to medical school and Paige is doing well in college too. I hope you're proud and resting easy. I love you and will probably always miss you.

“ To the Wilson family I send my deepest sympathy to all of you. I just today found out about the passing of Madison. He was my Major at MCIW and he was the best. Always treated everyone with respect as we did him. Madison was my friend and a very good supervisor. When I retired in 1996 that was the last time I saw him and I am so sorry for that, because he was the kind of person that would be your friend forever. A wonderful man who I'm sure his family is very proud of. RIP my friend will never forget you. SanDee Phoebus Washburn

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
