“ My sincere condolences to the family. Even though I do not know you personally, I do understand the grief of losing a loved one. What has brought me comfort are the promises Almighty God, Jehovah, has left for us in his word the Bible. He promises at Isaiah 26:19 that "Your dead ones will live...they will rise up..." I encourage you to take comfort in the fact that your dear loved one is asleep and has the hope of a resurrection.###imported-begin##Sandy Sloane###imported-end##

“ Our condolences to the family of Mrs. Chancy. Our family finds much solace from the promises in the Holy Bible. One such comforting promise is John 5:28,29- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May this loving promise bring you much comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Joseph and Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
