

Maduakolom Ukandu

May 7, 1957 - March 1, 2022

MADUAKOLAM UKANDU was born on May 7, 1957 in Kano, Nigeria to the late Jacob and Nne Ukandu. He departed this earthly life suddenly on Tuesday, March 1, 2022.

Maduakolam attended Evangel High School in Umuahia, Abia State, Nigeria and later moved to the United States to pursue higher education in 1980.

Maduakolam graduated from Coppin State University in 1983, obtaining a Bachelor's degree in Management. Two years later, he graduated from Morgan State University in 1985 with a Master's degree in Business Administration and another Bachelor's degree focused on Accounting in 1991.

Maduakolam worked many years as an accountant supervisor for the State of Maryland. He enjoyed listening to old 70s music, watching the news and sports. He liked to look and smell good by keeping a variety of clothing options and an extensive cologne collection.

Maduakolam was a knowledgeable and well-liked man with a keen sense of humor. He was quite popular amongst his peers. He will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him.

Maduakolam is survived by his wife, Grace; three sons, Azubuike, Chibuzo and Madu; daughter, Tamesha; several nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends
